CASE NO. 1:20-CV-0465 AWI JLT

ORDER DISCHARGING ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

15 This is a business dispute between Plaintiff and Defendant. Plaintiff brings California state
16 law causes of action. The Complaint alleges that this Court has diversity jurisdiction. On April 2,
17 2020, the Court issued an order to show cause why this case should not be dismissed for lack of 18 subject matter jurisdiction. See Doc. No. 6. The Court explained that the Complaint alleged the 19 Defendant's citizenship based on state of incorporation, even though Defendant was an LLC
20 whose citizenship is the same as its owners. See id. (citing 3123 SMB, LLC v. Horn, 880 F.3d
21 461, 465 (9th Cir. 2018); Johnson, 437 F.3d at 899 (9th Cir. 2006)).

22 On April 13, 2020, Plaintiff filed a response to the order show cause, as well as a First
23 Amended Complaint ("FAC"). See Doc. Nos. 7, 10. In the response and the FAC, Plaintiff
24 explains that Defendant appears to be wholly owned and operated by two people, one of whom is 25 domiciled in Wyoming and the other in Nebraska. See id.

26 Because Plaintiff is a California corporation, Plaintiff's response indicates that there is
27 complete diversity. The Court is satisfied with Plaintiff's response and that diversity jurisdiction
28 has now been sufficiently invoked. Therefore, the Court will discharge the order to show cause.

ORDER

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the April 2, 2020 order to show cause is DISCHARGED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: April 14, 2020
